Microloans to Thieves and Other Revolutionary Acts That Demand Championing

Monday, November 16th at 5:00 p.m. in the BLC Fireside Lounge

On January 26, 2009 Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Muhammad Yunus, Jamii Bora Founder Ingrid Munro, and Microcredit Summit Campaign Director Sam Daley-Harris came together to make a momentous announcement: in 2007 the Microcredit Summit Campaign had surpassed its goal of reaching 100 million of the world's poorest families. The largest global microfinance network, the Campaign had launched the goal at its inaugural meeting in 1997. The Campaign has now been extended to 2015 with more bold goals.

On November 16th, Sam Daley-Harris will speak at Rider to discuss the Microcredit Summit Campaign's recent achievements, next steps, and commitment to accelerating awareness and adoption of the most cutting edge innovations. His talk will include information on the creative practices of Kenyan microfinance institution Jamii Bora – from successfully making loans to beggars, thieves, and prostitutes to building a new town that allows slum dwellers to move into new homes and a better life.

Sam Daley-Harris is founder of RESULTS Educational Fund, a 501(c) (3) international organization dedicated to mass educational strategies to generate the will to end world hunger. Daley-Harris is also founder of RESULTS, an international citizens' lobby dedicated to creating the political will to end hunger and poverty. Mr. Daley-Harris received The Temple Award for Creative Altruism from the Institute of Noetic Sciences (1995), the Caring Award from the Caring Institute (1997), the Innovator Award from the Marriott School of Management at Brigham Young University (2003), the Elliott Black Award from the American Ethical Union (2003), and the Susan M. Davis Lifetime Achievement Award from the Grameen Foundation (2007).
