Instructions

1. Complete all applicable sections.
2. If your claim submission is for more than four family members, please submit a separate claim form for each additional family member.
3. Use Aetna's Voice Advantage® Unit (AVA) to obtain current account balance and claim payment information (this toll-free number is available from your employer). AVA is available Monday through Saturday, from 7 a.m. to 12 midnight ET.
4. Items for which you are reimbursed cannot be claimed as deductions or credits on your federal income tax returns.

Eligibility

1. Your expenses for dependent care services are eligible for reimbursement only if the services are performed for the benefit of a "qualifying child or relative." A qualifying child or relative is:
 - a dependent of yours who is under the age of 13
 - your spouse or dependent, if he or she is incapable of self-care on a temporary or permanent basis
2. A "dependent" is someone you may claim as a dependent on your federal income tax return.
3. "Eligible dependent care services" include:
 - services for the care of a qualifying child or relative
 - in-home services that are related to the care of a qualifying child or relative

The expenses to be reimbursed must have been incurred to enable you or your spouse to remain gainfully employed during a period in which there was at least one qualifying child or relative residing in your household.

4. You cannot be reimbursed for expenses:
 - for service not yet received, even if paid in advance
 - incurred for transportation of a dependent to a dependent care center
 - paid to one of your dependents for whom an exemption is claimed on your tax return
 - paid to one of your children who is under the age of 19, even if not a dependent
 - for out-of-home care for a qualifying child, over the age of 13, unless the qualifying child spends at least eight hours per day in the employee's home
 - for kindergarten education (services provided for day care before and after school are eligible for reimbursement when listed separately)
5. If you use the services of a "dependent care center," the center must meet all requirements of state and local law. A "dependent care center" means any facility that provides care for more than six individuals (other than individuals who reside there) and receives a payment or grant for providing dependent care services.
6. If you are married, you will only be eligible for reimbursement of dependent care expenses if your spouse is also employed, looking for work, or if he or she is a full-time student or incapable of self-care.
7. Effective January 1, 2003, you may not claim dependent care expenses that exceed the lesser of:
 - $5,000, or $2,500 if married and filing separate returns
 - your earned income
 - if you are married, your spouse's income (If your spouse is either a full-time student or is incapable of self-care, your spouse will be deemed to have qualifying earnings for each month he or she is a full-time student or incapacitated. The amount of deemed earnings will be $250 a month if you provide care for one qualifying child or relative or $500 a month if you provide care for more than one qualifying child or relative). For deemed income amounts for years prior to 2003, please refer to the applicable edition of IRS Publication 503.
