

Sample Four Year Plan for a History Major

Freshman Year

---

Fall Semester

HIS-110 Frosh Seminar
HIS-150 World to 1500
CMP-120
Foreign Language
one core course

Spring Semester

HIS-208 US to 1865
HIS-151 World since 1500
CMP-125
Foreign Language
a core course or one elective

Tips: Stay away from night classes. Join the History Club. Attend Department events such as Career Night, the Levine Lecture, and annual parties.

Sophomore Year

---

Fall Semester

HIS-209 or HIS-214
one Diversity or upper-level course
two core courses
one elective

Spring Semester

HIS-209 or HIS-215
one Diversity or upper-level course
two core courses
one elective

Tips: Consider declaring a Minor. Join Phi Alpha Theta (History Honors Society) if you qualify. Attend Department events such as Career Night, the Levine Lecture, and annual parties.

Junior Year

---

Fall Semester

HIS-360 or upper-level course
one Diversity or upper-level course
one core course
two electives

Spring Semester

HIS-360 or upper-level course
one Diversity or upper-level course
one core course
two electives

Tips: Consider doing an Internship or Study abroad. Attend Department events such as Career Night, the Levine Lecture, and annual parties.

Senior Year

---

Fall Semester

HIS-460 or upper-level course
one Diversity or upper-level course
three electives

Spring Semester

HIS-460 or upper-level course
one Diversity or upper-level course
three electives

Tips: Talk to an advisor about Graduate School if you're interested in attending. Talk to your advisor about the future. Make an appointment with Career Services to develop a professional resume or research career opportunities. Attend Department events such as Career Night, the Levine Lecture, and annual parties.