

We wanted to let you know of some news from the Alumni Relations Office at Westminster. We have just finished a very exciting reunions season at Westminster and are enjoying the beautiful view of the Quad with the warm weather here! Summer is not idle time for the Alumni Office though, we are hard at work to keep you informed of the latest news from Westminster.

WESTMINSTER TO HOST CONFERENCE RECEPTIONS

The Alumni Relations Office will be hosting receptions at the AGO convention in Chicago and at the NATS convention in Minneapolis.

These are great opportunities to catch-up with old friends or meet some new Westminster friends. Members of the faculty and the alumni staff will be on hand to update participants as well. Even alumni who are not attending the respective conferences are invited to attend. The cost for both receptions is $20.00 and there will be cash bar.

PROFESSOR EUGENE ROAN IN CONCERT

Westminster alumnus and professor emeritus Eugene Roan performed in "The Brick Church" Music Series at the First Church of Deerfield, Deerfield, MA, on Sunday, June 4, 2006. Professor Roan performed on the Richards, Fowkes, Opus 13 organ. He was joined by John Burkhalter on the English flute. Repertoire included works by Valerius, Scheidt, Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck, Scheidemann, Noordt, Cornet, Soldt, Weckmann, Schildt and Dirck Sweelinck.

Eugene is doing well and loves to get letters and cards in the mail. If you would like to send a note to Gene, please contact the Westminster Alumni Office at (609) 921-7100 ext. 8234 for the address.
