Summary of Coverage

Employer: Rider University
Group Policy: GP-884014
SOC: 4A
Issue Date: November 13, 2007
Original Effective Date: January 1, 2007

The group policy and the Booklet-Certificate are subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

The benefits shown in this Summary of Coverage are available for you and your eligible dependents.

This Summary of Coverage may be an electronic version of the Summary of Coverage on file with your Employer and Aetna Life Insurance Company. In case of any discrepancy between an electronic version and the printed copy which is part of the group insurance contract issued by Aetna Life Insurance Company, or in case of any legal action, the terms set forth in such group insurance contract will prevail. To obtain a printed copy of this Summary of Coverage, please contact your Employer.

Eligibility

Employees
You are in an Eligible Class if you are a regular full-time employee working 30 hours or more per week of an Employer participating in this Plan, or you are an eligible member of the AAUP as defined by your AAUP contract guidelines, and you elect the Passive PPO Dental Plan.

Your Eligibility Date, if you are then in an Eligible Class, is the Effective Date of this Plan. Otherwise, it is the first day of the calendar month coinciding with or next following the date you complete a probationary period of 30 days of continuous service for your Employer or, if later, the date you enter the Eligible Class.

Dependents
You may cover your:

• wife or husband; and
• unmarried children who are under 19 years of age and dependent on you for support and maintenance.

You may also cover as your dependent a person who is your Domestic Partner if you and your partner:

• Meet the requirements under New Jersey Law for entering into a Domestic Partnership; and
• Have jointly executed and filed an Affidavit of Domestic Partnership with the local registrar and have been issued a Certificate of Domestic Partnership; or
• Have entered into a Domestic Partnership outside the State of New Jersey which is valid under the laws of the jurisdiction under which the partnership was created; or
• Have completed and signed a “Declaration of Domestic Partnership” which is acceptable to your Employer.

Passive PPO Dental
Any other unmarried child under age 25 who goes to school on a regular basis and depends solely on you for support will be covered as a dependent.

Your children include:

- Your biological children.
- Your adopted children.
- Your stepchildren.
- Any other child you support who lives with you in a parent-child relationship.

No person may be covered both as an employee and dependent and no person may be covered as a dependent of more than one employee.

Enrollment Procedure

You will be required to enroll in a manner determined by Aetna and your Employer. This will allow your Employer to deduct your contributions from your pay. Be sure to enroll within 31 days of your Eligibility Date.

Your contributions toward the cost of this coverage will be deducted from your pay and are subject to change. The rate of any required contributions will be determined by your Employer. See your Employer for details.

Effective Date of Coverage

Employees
Your coverage will take effect on the later to occur of:

- your Eligibility Date; and
- the date you return your signed form.

Dependents
Coverage for your dependents will take effect on the date yours takes effect if, by then, you have enrolled for dependent coverage. You should report any new dependents. This may affect your contributions.

Reinstatement After Your Coverage Terminates
If your Employee and Dependents coverage terminates because your contributions are not paid when due, you may not be covered again for a period of two years from the date your coverage terminates. If you are in an eligible class, you may re-enroll yourself and your eligible dependents at the end of such two-year period. Your dental coverage will be effective as described in the Effective Date of Coverage section of this Summary of Coverage. Your dental coverage will be subject to any rules that apply to a person who enrolls after the first 31 days the person is eligible for the coverage.
Health Expense Coverage

Employees and Dependents
Your Booklet-Certificate spells out the period to which each maximum applies. These benefits apply separately to each covered person. Read the coverage section in your Booklet-Certificate for a complete description of the benefits payable.

Recognized Charge Percentage: The charge determined by Aetna on a semiannual basis to be in the 90 percentile of the charges made for a service or supply by providers in the geographic area where it is furnished.

Comprehensive Dental Expense Coverage

Calendar Year Deductible $ 50
The Calendar Year Deductible applies to all expenses except
Type A Expenses.
Family Deductible Limit $ 150

After the deductible, the dental expense benefits payable under this Plan in a calendar year are paid at the Payment Percentage below. Benefits may vary depending upon whether a Preferred Care Provider is utilized. A Preferred Care Provider is a health care provider who has agreed to provide dental services or supplies at a Negotiated Charge. See your Employer for a copy of the Directory, which lists these health care providers.

Payment Percentage
Type A Expenses 100%
Type B Expenses 80%
Type C Expenses 50%

Calendar Year Maximum $ 1,500

Adjustment Rule

If, for any reason, a person is entitled to a different amount of coverage, coverage will be adjusted as provided elsewhere in the group contract, except that an increase is subject to any Active Work Rule described in Effective Date of Coverage section of this Summary of Coverage.

Benefits for claims incurred after the date the adjustment becomes effective are payable in accordance with the revised plan provisions. In other words, there are no vested rights to benefits based upon provisions of this Plan in effect prior to the date of any adjustment.

General

This Summary of Coverage replaces any Summary of Coverage previously in effect under the group contract. Requests for amounts of coverage other than those to which you are entitled in accordance with this Summary of Coverage cannot be accepted.

The insurance described in this Booklet-Certificate will be provided under Aetna Life Insurance Company policy form GR-29.

ERISA Rights
As a participant in the group insurance plan you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. ERISA provides that all plan participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information about Your Plan and Benefits

Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator’s office and at other specified locations, such as worksites and union halls, all documents governing the Plan, including insurance contracts, collective bargaining agreements, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) that is filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts, collective bargaining agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series), and an updated Summary Plan Description. The Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

Receive a summary of the Plan’s annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Receive a copy of the procedures used by the Plan for determining a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) or a qualified medical child support order (QMCSO).

Continue Group Health Plan Coverage

Continue health care coverage for yourself, your spouse, or your dependents if there is a loss of coverage under the Plan as a result of a qualifying event. You or your dependents may have to pay for such coverage. Review this summary plan description and the documents governing the Plan for the rules governing your COBRA continuation coverage rights.

Reduction or elimination of exclusionary periods of coverage for preexisting conditions under your group health plan, if you have creditable coverage from another plan. You should be provided a certificate of creditable coverage, free of charge, from your group health plan or health insurance issuer when you lose coverage under the Plan, when you become entitled to elect COBRA continuation coverage, when your COBRA continuation coverage ceases, if you request it before losing coverage, or if you request it up to 24 months after losing coverage. Without evidence of creditable coverage, you may be subject to a preexisting condition exclusion for 12 months after your enrollment date in your coverage under this Plan. Contact your Plan Administrator for assistance in obtaining a certificate of creditable coverage.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. The people who operate your Plan, called “fiduciaries” of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in your interest and that of other plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights
If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request materials from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Administrator.

If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Plan’s decision or lack thereof concerning the status of a domestic relations order or a medical child support order, you may file suit in a federal court.
If it should happen that plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator.

If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, you should contact:

- the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory; or

You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
