The CAPA London Program Includes:

- Tuition costs and transfer credits from the University of Minnesota
- You may choose to live in a shared student apartment (or flat as it is referred to in the UK) or a homestay. Housing fee is not included in the tuition.
- If you choose to stay in a student apartment you will be given a meal voucher of £40 per week. This is an equivalent of £480 for a semester program. Check out www.xe.com for the GBP to USD conversion. If you decide to live in a homestay you will be provided Breakfast and Dinner every day.
- Optional Internship Placement
- Arrival Orientation
- A Zone 1 and 2 London Underground Pass for the duration of the program. Zone 3 is included for homestays. This is a £268 value. Check out www.xe.com for the most up to date conversion between the GBP and the USD.
- Arrival Orientation, Welcome Dinner, Mid-term dinner*, departure reception.
- Membership to Imperial College, University of London Student Union (for semester length programs).
- Access to the CAPA London Center Computer Lab.
- Comprehensive Insurance – Medical, travel and accident insurance.
- Advising and Support from the CAPA program staff before, during and after your term abroad.
- Day excursion to Bath and Stonehenge
- Various course-related events and activities.
- 24 hour on call emergency services