A. Opening Remarks
   1. Lauren is not here, she is singing madrigals. Alex Benestelli is hosting the meeting

B. RU CAST
   1. Blatant Self-Promotion Brunch
   2. Opportunity for students looking for internships
   3. People come from all vocations looking for interns
   4. Good chance to give out resumes, make contacts, networking
   5. Focusing on transportation, talking to Dave Keenan about extra shuttles
   6. Organizations from PA and NY will be invited as well
   7. Will be held in the Cavalla Room, at Lawrenceville Campus
   8. Less than half of the total budget will come from our SAF, rest of it will come from L’ville
   9. Flyers, postcards, etc. will be sent to organizations inviting them to come
   10. Jack Cleghorn moved to table the “Blatant Self Promotion Brunch” until after spring budget has been decided
      11. Seconded
      12. Motion Passes

C. Dr. Parente’s Request
   1. Totals have been edited, are more accurate
   2. No indication about whether Dr. Parente has spoken to Mrs. Clarfield, or the Dean
   3. Sam Scully moved to table the vote on Mario Prisuelos until we hear back from the piano department on their feelings on them funding it and find out what is going on with the Dean
      4. Seconded
      5. Motion Passes

D. Metropolitan Opera Tickets Proposal
   1. Still confusion about how signups will work
   2. Thirteen performances left, we’d be buying tickets for 10 shows
   3. Jack Cleghorn moved to table this until a more clear procedure is submitted
      4. Seconded
      5. Motion Passes
E. ACDA Request
   1. Request is all of 3 lines long, not much detail
   2. Seems like they have done very little fundraising of their own
   3. We DID approve the Christian Fellowship Convention, and more people will benefit from this
   4. Should they stay the night in Philadelphia, if it’s only about an hour away?
   5. Many are very enthusiastic about this, and many don’t have transportation
   6. Alex Benestelli moved to table the budget from ACDA until the next meeting, pending an itemized report
   7. Seconded
   8. Motion Passes

F. Closing Remarks – next meeting will be with the spring budget
