V. Vice President’s Report: 6:55
   i. It is against the rules for author to read their own legislation. It should only be read by a nonpartisan person.
   ii. Because past meetings have been a bit “unruly”, senators will need to raise their hands to be recognized to speak. This will save time and allow everyone’s voice to be heard.
   iii. S. Bill 1 – The Exec. Board is drafting a letter and will submit the finished letter to Dean Annis. The committee consists of Christian Stück, Helen Vassallo, Laura Hubbard and Steve Hitzel.
   iv. Passed Resolutions
      a. Letters have been drafted and will be edited/checked by Laura and Joe. They will then be sent to their corresponding departments.

IX. New Business: 7:17
i. Legislative Bills
   - S.2: Act for the formation of the Senate Commission on the merit and feasibility of extending Senator terms (Ms. Noble and Ms. Polan, authors)
     1. This bill is great for the reason of having an in-depth report given to the senators so that they can make a well informed decision
     2. Bill doesn’t keep in line with representation if the senators have two year terms – the classes change and evolve every year – they should have the representation (senators) they vote for each year.
        a. The commission should be changed to research the power of SGA within the University
        i. Motion to send back to author to be edited as a commission to research the power of SGA within the University – 2nd
