

RIDER UNIVERSITY WRITING PROJECT

2024 Summer Institute

FOR EDUCATORS FROM PRE-K THROUGH COLLEGE

Explore the craft of writing and teaching.

AT THE RIDER UNIVERSITY WRITING PROJECT (RWP), we understand educators rarely get the opportunity to explore their own journey as writers. As teachers, we ask our students to participate in writing communities nearly every day. But how often do we get the opportunity to participate in this same writing community culture? Join us for three rewarding weeks of collaboration with fellow educators as you enhance your writing and teaching skills and nurture leadership development.

The details:

- » Dates: Monday through Thursday, July 8 to 25
