Study Tour January 2016 - Cuba
Preliminary Information

Destination: Havana and Varadero, Cuba

This course will provide an opportunity to study the economy, culture, and business climate of Cuba. There will also be sports related tours.

Estimated Cost: Approximately $3,300.

Includes: Airfare (from Newark airport), seven nights lodging (at 3 star hotels- two students to a room), breakfast daily, ground transportation, all lectures, site visits, sporting events, museum and cultural tour admissions, and some lunches and dinners.

Itinerary: Leave the US approximately January 6th and return to the US on January 13th. We will use a tour company that arranges site visits and cultural events. We will have mandatory site visits and cultural tours daily. We will provide you with a firm itinerary closer to our departure.

Academic Credits: For undergraduate students, this course is listed as CBA 315 and can be used to fulfill the international business course elective for all business students and as a required course for International Business majors. It can also be used as one of the courses towards the Business of Sports minor. Undergraduate students will register for CBA 315 for the Spring 2016 semester.

This course can also be taken as a graduate course in the MBA or MACC programs.

There will be twelve (12) hours of pre-departure classes, a travel component, and one post travel meeting.

Passports/Visas A valid passport is required for US citizens. If you do not have a valid passport you should apply for one after being accepted for this trip. Visas will be provided by the tour provider. Please advise the faculty if you have a non-U.S. passport.

Deposit and Other Info: Space is limited to 20 students. You will be notified if you are accepted after your application is reviewed. To secure a place on the study tour a $300 deposit is required. Checks should be made payable to Rider University – CBA-315.

You may use VISA or MasterCard or Discover card for trip deposits and payments (NO debit cards or American Express cards).

Course Responsibilities: This is an academic course- and, as such, you will have course requirements. In addition to the pre-departure classes in Fall 2015 and our site tours in Cuba, you will be required to keep a journal and complete an assignment that will be due during Spring 2016 semester.

Payment Dates: The second payment of $1,000 is due May 15, 2015
The third payment of $1,000 is due September 15, 2015
The final payment of $1,000 is due November 10, 2015.
