Not included:
Items of a personal nature (e.g., laundry, additional beverages), 1 lunch, cost of passport, ground transportation to/from EWR, and cost of visa if holding a non-US passport.

Itinerary:
We will have mandatory site visits and cultural tours daily. We will provide you with a firm itinerary closer to our departure.

Academic Credits:
For undergraduate students, this course is listed as CBA 316 and can be used to fulfill the international business course elective for all business students and as a required course for International Business majors. Students will register for CBA 316 for the Spring 2016 semester. The course is cross-listed with IND 316. Any business student who would like to receive science credit can enroll in IND 316.

There will be twelve hours of pre-departure classes, a travel component, and a post-departure class.

For Graduate students, this course is listed as PMBA 8303 and can be used as an elective and to satisfy the international elective requirement. In addition to the travel costs, graduate students will be responsible for the tuition for a 3 credit graduate course.

Passports/Visas
A valid passport is required. If you do not have a valid passport you should apply for one before giving a deposit for this trip. You will be required to provide Dr. Cynthia Newman and World Strides with a photocopy of the first page of your passport before traveling. If you will be traveling on a foreign passport you must contact your country’s consulate to find out if a Visa is required to visit Belize and make arrangements as required to travel to this destination. Passport and visa costs are NOT included in the cost of this study tour.

Deposit and Other Info:
Space is limited. To secure a place on the study tour a deposit of $300 is due upon acceptance into the course. Checks should be made payable to Rider University – CBA-316 (for undergraduate students) and to Rider University PMBA 8303 for Graduate students. You may use VISA or MasterCard or Discover card for trip deposits and payments.

Deposit Terms:
$50 of the deposit is for administrative costs and is non-refundable. If you decide not to go on the study tour, you must inform us in writing. If Rider University can get a refund, you will receive a refund.

Payment Dates:
Payment schedule will be established by World Strides, our travel provider. It is anticipated that $400 will be due to World Strides by May 1 and 50% of the remaining balance will be due September 1 and November 1.
