Rider University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, gender, age, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, or disability status in the administration of its educational or admission policies, employment practices, scholarship and loan programs, athletic programs and any other Rider-sponsored program.

 Codes of Academic and Social Conduct: The preamble to the Code of Academic Conduct includes the following statements: Academic honesty constitutes that cornerstone of the academic community. Rider University insists on strict adherence to the concept of academic honesty as indispensable to the continued existence and future development of the campus community. The Code of Social Conduct articulates guidelines for defining rights and responsibilities within the community. In order to function effectively and to provide a climate in which all members can fulfill their personal and community obligations, guidelines are enforced. The complete text of the code is in the Rider "Source" which is distributed by the Office of Campus Life to students at the beginning of each year. Rider expects all students to honor and maintain these codes. Rider University reserves the right to rescind admission for up to one year for any admitted student who violates the code of conduct prior to starting classes. For detailed information on Rider's code of conduct, please refer to The Source which is available online at www.rider.edu/thesource*
