- b. Senator Sweeney received an email from a student who takes classes on both campuses. The shuttle has not shown up.
- c. Senator Halbstein expanded on Senator Hopkins commentary. He asked if it would be possible to present some sort of legislation to have some bulletin boards put up for recital posters.
- d. Secretary Antoni asked if it is necessary to create legislation versus possibly just talking to ADOS or maybe Residence Life.
- e. Senator Sweeney would gladly help Senator Baron in creating new bulletin boards in the dorms.

- f. Senator Friars is concerned today with Anthony Baron's posters illegally hanging. Maybe we should reconsider the committee.
- g. Senator Goff thinks that before we speak in derogatory ways of senators especially when they are not present. He knows that Senator baron is trying to follow the rules. Some of his constituents who are organists who mentioned that the white board in Ithaca Hall with profanity. The board needs to go. Another thing, he went to Lawrenceville campus to eat and went to Lakehouse to see the practice rooms. A few senators and himself were dismayed that they couldn't get in to their practice rooms but every C of A students can get into our practice rooms and therefore our rooms. He plans on bringing forth some legislation in the future.
