

WESTMINSTER CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC OPERA OUTINGS 2019-2020

Westminster Conservatory's Opera Outings include round-trip transportation to Lincoln Center with pick-up locations at: Princeton/Westminster Conservatory; and New Brunswick/Brunswick Zone. We provide information about restaurants in the Lincoln Center area and there is sufficient time to enjoy them. You will also receive background material on each opera and suggestions for other reference materials.

In addition, we offer Opera Lectures appropriate for both the novice and advanced opera enthusiast which are open to all, regardless of whether or not you are an Opera Outings ticket holder. The lectures, presented by Timothy Urban, will enhance your opera experience through insights into the operas and composers, with background information about the opera's cast and creators. Each class meets one week prior to the corresponding opera at 9:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m., unless otherwise noted, in room L4/5 in the basement of the Library at Westminster Choir College of Rider University. The price includes the lecture, a handout about the opera, and coffee, tea and snacks. You don't need to attend the opera to enjoy the lecture.

ALL SALES ARE FINAL; however, refunds will be issued if the lecture is cancelled for any reason.
