COVID-19 Shared Responsibility and Financial Agreement to Enroll for Returning Students

1. Log into myRider and select the Student tab

The screenshot shows the myRider website interface. At the top, there is a dark red header with the Rider University logo on the left. Below the logo, there are three navigation tabs: "Welcome", "Applicant", and "Student". The "Student" tab is highlighted with a blue circle. Below the tabs, there is a breadcrumb trail: "Home Community > Welcome". The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is titled "Recent Headlines" and contains two articles. The first article is titled "9 in 10 of Rider's Class of 2019 employed, in graduate school, volunteering or in military" and includes a sub-headline "Survey reveals insights about Class of 2019 one year after graduation". The second article is titled "Rider joins amicus brief challenging ICE rules for international students" and includes a sub-headline "Policy would bar international students from U.S.". The right column is titled "Rider Events" and contains three event listings. The first event is on July 22 at 6:00pm, titled "Graduate Information Session: Careers in Teaching and Education", with a description: "Discover how Rider's graduate education and certificate programs can prepare you to advance or transition into a career working in a school setting." The second event is on July 23 at 6:00pm, titled "Graduate Information Session: Degrees in Business and Leadership", with a description: "Learn how Rider's graduate business and leadership programs can strengthen your business expertise, cultivate leadership skills and position you for advancement." The third event is on July 23 at 7:00pm, titled "Charlotte W. Newcombe Scholarship Information Session".

COVID-19 Pledge and Enrollment Agreement

COVID-19 Shared Responsibility Pledge

COVID-19, the disease caused by the novel coronavirus, represents an unusual and potentially life threatening risk to students, faculty and staff of Rider University. Individuals who are symptomatic at all. Because of this and because of COVID-19's highly contagious nature, controlling the spread of COVID-19, or determining whether, where, or how a specific individual in the Rider community must use their best judgment and exercise extreme care to minimize the risk of COVID-19 infection upon their return to campus this fall for the 2020-21 academic year.

In support of this shared responsibility and to help ensure the careful and responsible reopening of campus this fall, Rider established the comprehensive Resolved and Ready. The Plan's guidelines and requirements.

Rider University commits to keeping the Resolved and Ready Plan updated on the Rider website (rider.edu/resolved-and-ready) and announcing changes made to the Plan on the web site's directives. Failure to do so will be subject to enforcement, including through Rider's Student Code of Social Conduct.
